INTRODUCTION

Introduction

(i) Objectives and Principles underlying the rules.

The Lusaka Stock Exchange (herein called “the LuSE”) provides a market for the listing of Debt Securities issued by government, public enterprises, corporations and other entities. The objectives of and principles underlying the rules are as follows:

- To regulate the intermediation of capital raised by issuers of long term debt instruments.
- To enhance investor confidence by ensuring that issuers meet the minimum disclosure standards at the time they are soliciting for long term funds from investors.
- To enhance investor protection by ensuring that issuers of long term debt instruments continuously keep investors well informed about their investments and entities in which they have invested through out the tenor of the instruments.
- To generally promote the LuSE as a forum for alternative investment.
- To encourage government, local authorities and parastatals to use LuSE as an alternative forum for raising of capital.

(ii) Listing Committee

Under the provisions of the Rules an issuer that requires its Debt Securities to be listed on LuSE shall comply with the Rules and make an application to LuSE before it is granted such listing.

The Listing Committee shall be appointed in accordance with the LuSE Articles (as amended from time to time) and shall comprise no less than three (3) Board Members.

The Listing Committee derives its powers from its appointment by the LuSE Board as the delegated authority, inter alia, to review all matters relating to the rules, including the authority to examine and recommend to the LuSE Board for approval or refusal of such approval all Applications for listing and supporting documentation, which approval may be subject to certain conditions.

In terms of the Rules, the Listings Committee has the power to consolidate, suspend, remove or alter from time to time:

- A requirement for the listing of Debt Securities prescribed before or alter a listing has been granted; and
- A listing of a Debt Security, and to prescribe the circumstances under which such listing shall or may be consolidated, suspended, removed or altered, as the case may be.
